Petu!

This little boy would make a welcome addition to any home. In addition to his handsome face (which he enjoys gazing at himself in his cage mirror), he brings a wealth of personality.

He is cheerful, friendly and... a lounge singer wannabe! Yes, it's true. Given his way, Petu will serenade you with musical selections from his favorite movie, The Wizard of Oz. Who among us can say they don't know all the words to Over the Rainbow? And, like Dorothy, our hero dreams of going home. He's sure it's out there somewhere. After all, if happy little blue birds fly... well, you know the rest!
